WILL GIVE EVIDENCE FOR STATE IN A LIQUOR CASE

On recommendation of County Attorney C. L. Farr, the case of the state of Utah against Shelby Thompson was dismissed by Municipal Judge George S. Barker this morning. Thompson was charged with having liquor in his possession. He is the young man who testified in the Martin Smith case that he got the liquor from the Smith place.

NEW HOTEL TO BE ERECTED ON CENTER

Jerry Mahoney has had a bug ever since the oil excitement struck Casper that he would make enough money out of oil to build a fine, modern hotel. After he got into the game strong, it did not take him long to realize on the financial end of it and plans are finally announced in regard to the new hotel. This building will be erected on the corner of Third and Center streets and will have a frontage of four lots on Third and six lots on Center street. It will be six stories high and contain 387 rooms. M. J. Burke of Denver is interested in this hotel with Mr. Mahoney.

Casper has two fine modern hotels, the Midwest and Henning but they are inadequate to handle the business since the oil boom started.—Advertisement.

PERSHING SENDS CASUALTY LIST

Sixty-seven Lives Lost When
Army Transport Antilles
Went Down.

ONE UNACCOUNTED FOR Survivors of the Deadly German U-Boat Torpedo.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Sixty-seven lives were lost when the army transport Antilles went down on last Wednesday by the torpedo of a German submarine. The official list of casualties, called today by General Pershing, shows sixty-seven lost, survivors 170, and one unaccounted for. The casualty list shows that not all the lost were Americans. The firemen, of whom many probably were killed by the explosion, came principally from Spain and Portugal. Some of the non-commissioned army officers, among the American troops lost, were men of foreign birth. Two of them were Germans by birth and now have mothers living in Germany, one in Berlin and the other in Oldenburg.

'DOUG' FAIRBANKS WILL BE IN OGDEN AT 3:35 P. M., TUESDAY, TO AID IN SELLING LIBERTY BONDS

Douglas Fairbanks, the incarnation of "wim, vigor and vitality," the man who puts pep into everything and who goes after what he gets, Douglas Fairbanks, is now selling liberty bonds and will be in Ogden tomorrow afternoon at 3:35 p. m. and will give an address. He will appear in front of the Union depot on a platform which has been specially arranged and will address his Ogden friends and inspire them with a little of the spirit which impelled him to contribute $500,000 to the second loan. Fairbanks is traveling westward from Chicago and will be in Ogden about thirty minutes.

During that time he proposes to sell liberty bonds to Ogden people and will probably do so, if the Fairbanks smile and winning personality mean anything off the screen. This feature of the loan campaign will be a fitting opener for the last week of the drive in Ogden. From now, until October 27, Ogden will have to raise a considerable amount of money for the allotment has not yet been realized and hard, active work is necessary to get the desired results.

Complete reports have not been received from the city or county districts, but reports from them indicate that the loan is progressing fairly. Small subscriptions are coming in at a pleasing rate, but there is still need of more general participation in the loan. There is a vast number of people who have not been reached and whose subscriptions are greatly desired and necessary to make the loan a success.

Plans for a parade and patriotic celebration for liberty loan day, October 24, have been abandoned because the participation of soldiers from Fort Douglas could not be secured. It was decided that a parade for the liberty loan campaign would not be appropriate unless the military was represented and, when it was found that soldiers could not be sent from the fort, despite the fact that transportation was assured by Ogden men, the parade feature of the national day was excluded. There will probably be special programs in the theaters for the event.

WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The week in the stock market opened with a continuance of activity in war shares at higher levels. Equipments were again the conspicuous features at gains of one to two points. Shipings, metals, oils and various specialties shared in the advance but rails were sluggish and utilities as represented by gas shares, manifested some of their recent reactionary trend. Trading was broad and suggested further closing of short contracts.

Mowing Down Crowds in Streets of Petrograd!

This remarkable news picture, sent to the Ogden Standard by Kenneth W. Payne, its London correspondent, was taken at a street intersection on Petrograd's famous Nevsky Prospekt as crowds were fleeing from the fire of a machine gun trained on them by the ultra-radicals headed by Lenin. Men and boys armed with rifles and machine guns had been told to start an insurrection, in the hope the Cronstadt Regiment would join them. In this picture the insurrectionists are firing from a side-street at the left of the picture, as shown by the swath of death and wounded men and women lying across the Nevsky.

Drozkys were overturned and their horses dashed about madly in the crowd. Street car traffic had halted. Note the mother and child, in the center of the picture—the woman instinctively shielding her baby from the deadly leaden hail. When this insurrection was put down by Kerensky, Lenin's power dwindled, and he fled from Russia. Read the Classified Ads.
